

UC HASTINGS

COLLEGE OF THE LAW

EST. 1878

The University of California Hastings College of the Law was founded in 1878 as the law department of the University of California and was the first law school in California. Over the years, it has built a legacy and reputation of being a preeminent institution comprised of renowned faculty committed to the study of legal theory and research, preparing students for careers in the judicial system, public service, and industry.

The College is redefining legal education through an experiential, interdisciplinary, and international approach to the law. By integrating rigorous academics with hands-on practice, the College is preparing its graduates to tackle the legal challenges—and leverage the opportunities—of the 21st century.

DIRECTOR OF LEGAL EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM LEOP

Classification: Level 5 / Class Code 7110 / Exempt / Full-Time / Benefited

Hiring Salary Range: $86,525 - $121,133 (commensurate with qualifications)

Posting Date: July 7, 2017

THE ROLE

The Legal Education Opportunity Program (LEOP) was created in 1969 to make a top-tier legal education accessible to those who come from significantly adverse backgrounds. LEOP recognizes that the traditional numeric criteria used in general admission may not be sufficient indicators of academic potential for students who have experienced significant adversity that has restricted access to academic opportunities and resources. The LEOP Director manages the admissions, support, and community-building facets of the program within the administrative infrastructure established by the College. The LEOP Director reports to the Assistant Dean for Academic and Professional Success.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Typical duties and responsibilities consist of, but are not limited to, the following:

- Designing, implementing and administering programming, including, by way of example, orientation, academic support and skills instruction, professional development, and community-building activities;
- Advising students;
- Hiring, training and supervising LEOP student Teaching Assistants;
- Coordinating with faculty and other departments at the College;
- Developing and administering other academic resources, services and programming as appropriate;
- Participating in the LEOP admissions process;
- Program budgeting; and
- Program reporting and assessment.
